Projects

Gray Code to Binary Converter Project

Designed and simulated a digital system using logic gates as part of coursework.

Wind Turbine Prototype Project (NGN 110)

Collaborated in a team to design, build, and test a wind turbine prototype under material and time constraints. Contributed to project coordination, analysis of design alternatives, and performance evaluation.

FIFA Player Data Statistical Analysis (NGN 211)

Analyzed a real-world dataset using MATLAB to perform descriptive statistics, hypothesis testing, probability distribution fitting, and regression analysis to identify trends and relationships.
